After every parkour map I complete there is a stupid ad. And speaking of maps, we need some new ones for the classic race. I love this game but I'm really good at all the maps so it's kinda boring to play them. Plus, can we not play with computer players?? I know their computer players because I am always in last place to start a race but always end up in first when I finish! Plus, for the zip line, if these were real players they would know that is the key to winning the game and EVERYBODY would go for it. Not to mention the odd colors that the other characters are that we can't get. Put us with real players, not computer plays please and thank you! Still, love the game to many ads and needs more maps. Bye now!!I notice that you didn't get to all my requests. I asked for more maps on the classic race but there are no new maps! But then there is a new map on the daily race. WHAT GIVES?! The daily race is hard enough on its own with enough of maps, but maybe you could be nice to the classic race and add more maps to that race. Also, we are still playing with computer players! If you guys are to lazy to make us race real people then I will just delete the game. It is not fun anymore!
